David Molner Joins A COMPANY Supervisory Board

During A COMPANY shareholders' meeting held on Friday, April 3rd, David Molner, Chairman of Aramid Capital Partners and Managing Director of Screen Capital International, was elected as member of the Supervisory Board. The new election was necessary due to the resignation of Helge Sasse, CEO Senator Entertainment AG.

David Molner founded Screen Capital International in 2001. The company, based in Los Angeles, California, specializes in structuring and facilitating cross-border tax-advantaged financing for major motion picture producers in vehicles involving private, public and corporate investors on an international basis. The company also engages in a select number of private equity transactions involving media assets. To date, the company has executed transactions in excess of $7.0 billion. Prior to founding Screen Capital, David was Senior Vice President of Worldwide Corporate Business Development of the Viacom Entertainment Group / Paramount Pictures.

A COMPANY is a Media Holding, specialized on the eastern European markets. Through its subsidiaries Eastern European Acquisition Pool, Time Code Media Elements and Gala Media & Film International Moscow, A COMPANY handles over 220 Films in Central and Eastern Europe.
