BERLIN -- Berlin-based Eastern European Acquisition Pool has inked a deal with Morgan Creek Prods. to rep its pay and free TV rights in all Central and Eastern European territories.

Morgan Creek's library includes such high-profile films as "Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves," starring Kevin Costner; "Last of the Mohicans," with Daniel Day Lewis; Bruce Willis starrer "The Whole Nine Yards"; "Ace Ventura: Pet Detective," starring Jim Carrey; and "Get Carter," with Sylvester Stallone.

Among the first licensing deals containing Morgan Creek titles that EEAP concluded recently include agreements with the Ukraine's ICTV, Viasat's multi-territorial pay TV platform TV 1000 Balkan, and the Polish state TV station TVP. EEAP said it expects further TV sales before and during the Mipcom TV mart in Cannes next week.

The deal was negotiated by Daniel Diamond, Morgan Creek's president of international sales, and EEAP topper Alexander van Duermen.
